

Have you been like me in lockdown and spent more time looking out of your window?
How has it made you feel?

I've looked out of my kitchen window and put some of my ideas in the boxes below.

Pleased

The lawn's been cut.

Amused

It's a hot day and two fat pigeons are sitting squashed side by side in the small bird bath to cool off.

Sad

Coronavirus hasn't got the slugs.

Worried

The neighbour's up his ladder - I hope he doesn't fall off!.

Happy

The blue tits nesting outside the back door are feeding their young.

Can you add your own thoughts and compare notes with the person who phones you from church each week?
